LANCHORNE'S CAVALRY CROSS-ES INTO MEXICO IN PUR-SUIT OF GANG.

(International News Service.)
EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 19.—American troops have crossed into Mexico at a point near Candelaria and are said to be in pursuit of the Mexican bandits who kidnapped Lieuts. Peterson and Davis, U. S. army aviators.
The troops that crossed the border are from the Eighth cavalry and are well supplied with machine guns. Several army airplanes are scouting with the cavalry troops in an effort to locate the bandits. Lieuts. Peterson and Davis are said to be with the cavalry, leading them to the rendezvous of the bandits.

(International News Service.)
MARFA, Tex., Aug. 19.—The Eighth United States cavalry is crossing the border in pursuit of the bandits who kidnapped aviators Peterson and Davis. The International News Service correspondent is with this expedition. A sharp dash is expected and the troops are in high spirits in anticipation of capturing the Mexicans responsible for the outrage against our army.

(International News Service.)
MARFA, Texas, Aug. 19.—Lieuts.
H. B. Peterson and Paul H. Davis, American army aviators captured by a band of Mexican bandits and held for $15,000 ransom, are today safe on the United States side of the border.
Lieut. Peterson's freedom was bought for $7,500 and Lieut. Davis was rescued by Capt. Matlock of the Eighth cavalry, who, unaccompanied, went to the bandits' rendezvous and brought about the release of both aviators.

Lieut. Peterson crossed the border shortly after 1 o'clock. An hour later, Lieut. Davis and Capt. Matlock reached American soil.
Capt. Matlock, carrying the $15,000 ransom money, went into the bandit's mountain camp late last night. On arriving at the camp, he demanded that the Americans be released immediately. This the bandits refused, insisting that the ransom money be turned over to them before the lieutenants were brought out. Capt. Matlock then offered the bandits $7,500, half of the amount demanded, and insisted that one of the men be brought out before he could pay the balance.
Lieut. Peterson was released by the bandits and immediately left the camp upon the payment of $7,500. Lieut.
Davis was then brought out and at a signal from Capt. Matlock he jumped astride the captain's horse and before the bandits could interfere the officers fled into the night, without paying the additional $7,500.

LEWIS SAYS "GET 'EM"
(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Unless Mexico keeps her promise to protect the citizens and property of the U. S., "the government is going after it with the same spirit and machine that whipped Germany," declared former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis here today in a speech.

LABOR PARTY IS FORMED; TO HOLD 1920 CONVENTION

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Labor may have a presidential candidate in the running in 1920. This became known here today, following the organization here yesterday of a national labor party by thirty executive chairmen, representing nine states. It is planned to hold a national convention at Chicago in 1920 to complete the organization of the party and to decide the course of the party in the 1920 campaign.

BATTING AVERAGES ARE FATTENED AT VISITOR'S EXPENSE

HUNTSVILLE "TOWN BALL" TOS-SERS ARE EASY PICKING FOR LOCAL OUTFIT.

LEWIS, HOME HURLER, SECURED TWO HITS IN A SINGLE INNING.

(By BARRETT SHELTON.)
The Albany-Decatur baseball team ran away with the first game on the local lot with the Huntsville outfit, the final counting up showing seventeen safeties and sixteen tallies. Huntsville was blanked for the whole distance and was unable to do much with Lewis at any stage of the contest, though they succeeded in getting men on the runways as far as the hot corner.

The whole local crew went in at the start to get their fill of hits and runs, after so long a wait during the series with the Lawrenceburg bunch. Albany-Decatur had been fed up on the 2-1, 1-0 games and decided that it was best to get some batting practice before the next trio of bouts with the folks from the Tennessee hamlet.
And hey did. When the smoke of battle of the sixth inning cleared the defenders had swung their war clubs heavily and had made eight counters in the one inning with a total of six bingles is as much time. This inning brought results that are seldom seen even in the big show. Lewis, the Hames moundman, had two of the safeties to his credit, while Steadman, the star second baseman, had managed to do his bit for the Huntsville gang by making two out in this inning. Every one scored but "Bull," who was forced at second on Robert's fielder's choice. F. Barnes led the hitters with a percentage of .800 for the day. All the rest of the local bunch batted over the five hundred mark except Wells and Roberts. The only opposing batsman that was able to solve Lewis' slants was Everett, covering first. Everett got three of the visitor's seven hits out of four trips to the plate. Both Sparkman and Price were wild, though Price struck out five of the ten men to face him.

Lewis took the whole nine rounds in easy fashion and had control all the way, striking out eight men and hitting one.

MANAGER HAMES IS ROBBED OF $300 AT LAWRENCEBURG

Manager Ott Hames, of the Albany-Decatur team, today had received news of no new clues in connection with the theft of $300 from his room in the hotel in Lawrenceburg, during the series there between the local squad and the Tennesseans.

The local manager placed the money under his pillow during the night and arose late for breakfast. When he returned to his room after eating the money was gone. Mr. Hames thought for a time that he was the victim of a practical joker but after making inquiries of other guests at the hotel, had every guest searched but failed to find a clue.

The money represented the profits of the recent road trip of the team and was in a cashier's check and currency. One hundred and sixty dollars, the amount of the check, will be recovered as payment has been stopped. The currency was two fifty dollar bills, the serial numbers of which have been obtained from the bank by which they were issued, and smaller change.

Piloted by a car driven by A. G.
Patterson, the Albany Boosters left shortly after nine o'clock this morning on the first leg of the first annual trade expansion trip since the signing of the armistice. The Boosters carried with them the Albany Booster band, led by Prof. Kopp, more than a dozen automobiles and a truck. The automobiles were loaded with boosters and souvenirs and the boosters were loaded with good cheer speeches which will be delivered at all communities visited today.

The big truck, which trailed the party, was piled high with ice cream and cold drinks which will be dispensed along the day's journey.
Many of the cars were attractively decorated, setting forth the advantages of trading in Albany, the city's slogan "Albany, Alert, Active, Aggressive" being conspicuously displayed.

DAYLIGHT LAW IS PASSED OVER VETO HOUSE, 223 TO 101

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The house this afternoon re-passed over the President veto the bill repealing the daylight saving law. The vote was 223 to 101. The veto must be overridden also by the senate before the law is repealed.

RED SHIPS SUNK BY BRITISH NAVY IN GULF FINLAND

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Aug. 19.—A Russian battleship, a cruiser, a transport and a guardship were sunk by British naval forces in a sea fight with the Bolsheviks in the Gulf of Finland on Sunday. The British lost only three motor boats.

Collision on Field Gave Life to Runner In Very Close Game

That the game which Lawrenceburg won from Albany-Decatur last week by one score was not lost through Steadman's "fumble," as had been reported, was explained today by Manager Hames.
"There were two down," he said,
"when a ball was hit to the infield.
Baker and Steadman collided in an attempt to field it, and the player was safe at first. Later a wild throw to first by Bingham allowed the runner to score. It was just another story of hard luck."

LA FAYETTE STREET BUILDINGS WILL BE REMODELLED IS ANNOUNCEMENT.

Announcement was made today of the sale of five stores on LaFayette street by Col. C. C. Harris to Charles Alexander, a prominent business man of Hartselle. The consideration was not announced but it was stated it was for cash.

The block bought by Mr. Alexander extends from the American hotel to the St. George cafe on the north side of LaFayette street. The buildings will be remodelled, extensive improvements being started in a short time.
The latest purchase by Mr. Alexander brings his total to nine retail mercantile buildings bought in Decatur during the past few weeks. Four of the stores are located on Bank street.

HUSBAND OF EIGHT WIVES GIVES RULES FOR WOOING

"Religious Wooer" Says Women Like to Be Swept Off Their Feet and Have No Use for Man Who Takes Six Months to Accomplish What He Can in Six Minutes.

Charles H. Wilson, who admits he has eight wives living, has sent from his cell in the Tombs following rules for winning women:

"The way to win a woman is to go right after her. Women like to be swept off their feet. They have no time for the man who takes six months to accomplish what he can in six minutes.

"Every woman is a potential mother and religiously contemplates wedlock.

"Always make your appeal to the better side in woman's nature and the good that is in them. They shun sordidness.

"Be neat and orderly about your person. Dress well, not necessarily expensive. I never paid more than $18 for a suit in my life."

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Charles H.
Wilson, known as "the religious wooer," pleaded guilty of bigamy before Judge Wadhams in General Sessions.
He has confessed he has eight wives living.

Wilson's arrest was on the complaint of Mrs. Fay Ziff Wilson, of No.
1918 Madison avenue, the last of his wives. He married her November 13, 1916. She complained at that time he had another wife, Mrs. Caroline Morris Wilson, of No. 5 South Fourteenth avenue, Mount Vernon, whom he married June 7, 1916.

Wilson, a son of a Scottish Methodist minister, attributes his "marriage spree" to the actions of his first wife, whom he married in Davenport, Iowa, January 22, 1900, and also to the fact that he was a travelling salesman. He denied that all of his wives came from religious circles and were of unblemished character. He said:

Says They Wanted Luxury
"I don't want to throw mud, but a number of them were designing women, who knew that I, as a travelling salesman, made from $40 to $60 a day and could support them in comparative luxury. I married one of them out of pity. She was in trouble and feared disgrace to her family, so I took her to a distant city and married her. I was not responsible for her condition."

WHIPS COMPARING METHODS

Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas Republican whip, is demonstrating to Senator Peter Golet Gerry of Rhode Island, Democratic whip, how he keeps the Republicans in line. His posture would indicate that he uses forceful arguments, though the smile on Senator Gerry's face gives the impression that Senator Curtis' methods are not without humor.

LEE AND BRADFORD CASES ON TRIAL IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

CHARGES OF MURDER GROWING OUT OF VANDIVER KILL-ING, AIRED.

State Rests Its Case
PROBABLY WILL COMPLETE
HEARING TODAY. VERDICT IS EXPECTED TONIGHT.

The cases of ex-Sheriff Ben. Lee, Newt and Alton Bradford, all of Lawrence county, charged with shooting to death Herman Vandiver were on trial in the Circuit court today. The charges grew out of the same circumstances and are being tried together.

The state opened its case this morning, placing J. M. Washburn, brother-in-law of the dead man on the stand. Vandiver was slain at the Washburn home in Morgan county. Lee and the Bradfords claim they were searching for him on a warrant issued in Lawrence county charging the dead man with assault with intent to murder on the person of another member of the Bradford family. Washburn told of the visit of the officers and the Bradfords to his home the night of the killing.

His wife, Mollie Washburn, followed her husband and told of the officer's visit. The testimony of Plinie Washburn, brother of J. M. Washburn, was along the same lines.

Mollie Vandiver, sister of Herman Vandiver, told of a visit of Lee and the others to her home in Austinville on the night of the tragedy in search of Vandiver.

J. M. Vandiver described the wounds on the dead man and the state rested.
The defense placed Bill Bradford, who is alleged to have been shot by Vandiver in Lawrence county, on the stand and he described the affray.

Judge Kump, of Moulton, told of issuing the warrant for Vandiver's arrest and the warrant was read to the jury by Attorney Lynne. He declared Lee was of good character.

Judge Sherrod, at the time of the killing solicitor of Lawrence county, testified Lee came to him for advice about serving the warrant and he told the official that he had the authority to pursue Vandiver into Morgan county.

Other prominent citizens of Lawrence probably will be called as character witnesses by the defense.

It is expected the case will be completed this afternoon and a verdict may be rendered before night.

Solicitor D. C. Almon and Deputy Solicitor T. C. Almon are prosecuting the case and Attorneys Chenuit, Callahan and Lynne are appearing for the defense.

WILL MONTGOMERY IS GIVEN 15 YEARS

CONVICTED BY JURY OF MUR-DER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Will Montgomery, charged with murder in connection with the death of "Red" Nelson, whose decomposed body was found at the base of a bluff near Hartselle several months ago, was found guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced to 15 years in the Circuit court last night.

The case was the first called off five on the docket for Monday and went to the jury about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The jury reported their verdict to Judge Tate at 7:30 o'clock.
Montgomery was defended by P. M.
Brindley and Solicitor Almon and Deputy Solicitor T. C. Almon conducted the prosecution.

PRESIDENT SAYS CAN'T REFER PACT BACK TO GERMANY

IS WILLING TO ACCEPT "INTER-PRETATIONS" SO THEY ARE NOT FORMAL.

Visited by Committee
ALL-DAY SESSION BEING HELD IN THE WHITE HOUSE.
QUIZZED BY REPUBS.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Wilson today again urged the senate immediately to ratify the Versailles treaty.

In a lengthy statement, which he read as soon as the hearings, with the committee as his guests, began in the blue room of the white house, the President declared that the present unrest throughout the country cannot be ended until peace is an actuality.

The president threw a bomb shell into the committee before he presented his statement when he declared there could be no objection to interpretations accompanying the ratification of the treaty, as long as such interpretation did not form a part of the formal ratification itself. His objection to making such interpretation as part of the formal resolution of ratification was that long delay would be the inevitable consequence, as all the governments concerned would have to accept in effect the language of the senate as the language of the treaty, before ratification would be complete. The assent of the German assembly at Weimar also would be required, the president said.

"I would frankly say," the president continued, "that I could only with the greatest reluctance approach that assembly for permission to read the treaty as we understand it and as those who framed it quite certainly understood it."

He declared that qualification of part of the treaty would cloud the entire document. He said that unless the treaty was ratified it would leave the markets of central Europe "to our trade rivals." He told the committee that in his opinion, the Monroe doctrine was completely safeguarded by the league of nations covenant. He took direct issue with the leading members of the committee when he said: "I respectfully submit that there is nothing vague or doubtful in the wording of these provisions."

The conference was begun in the blue room but it was found too warm and crowded for personal comfort and was moved to the big east room. Senator Borah sat directly in front of the president during the proceedings.

The committee listened in silence until the president had finished, then Senator Lodge carefully explained the reasons for the committee's presence, declaring that they were seeking information to guide them in their work and hoped that the president would not encourage detailed explanations.

The president said that he was very glad that the committee had visited him, and that he wanted to give all the information that he possessed. He suggested that the entire day could be devoted to the conference, and asked the committee to be his guests at luncheon. This was satisfactory to the committee, and the president sent word to Secretary Tumulty to call off the regular cabinet meeting. Senator Lodge, during the meeting, asked the president whether "the genesis of the constitution of the league of nations was not the plan prepared by General Smuts of the British commission." To this the president replied, "yes."

UNCLE SAM PLAYS THE ROLE OF GROCER

Probably for the first time in all his long and active career, Uncle Sam is this week playing the role of grocer. In order to accommodate the trade, the genial relative commended the services of a host of post office employees, and has found that they are just as efficient in selling corned beef and bacon as they are in handling first-class mail matter. The experiment, for such it may be termed, rather than as an incident of the war, is likely to have far-reaching consequences, for public sentiment is likely to approve this invasion of the retail realm in emergency, and may ask that relief from the high cost of living be furnished by the government on other occasions in the future. Of course, the supply of army rations will soon be exhausted, and then there may be a balk, for Americans as a whole have always opposed government ownership or distribution of anything—even the necessities of life. And it may not be good politics to establish precedents of this kind almost on the eve of a presidential campaign. Certainly it would not be for the best interests of the people as a whole to drive the retailer from the market of trade, for he is a handy fellow to have about and pays taxes and performs other duties that are incumbent upon the good citizen. However, this little departure from the beaten may after all turn out to be merely a warning to the profiteer, whether manufacturer, wholesaler or retailer, and an object lesson to those who would become extortioners at a perilous period.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH AMERICAN COURTS?

The Ford-Tribune trial, while a little out of the ordinary in that both the plaintiff and the defendant had considerable money to burn and could thus stage a bigger show, calls strikingly to public attention the American system of court procedure. This trial continued for three whole months and is said to have cost half a million dollars. These figures may be exaggerated, but any person at all familiar with the price of justice as it is administered, can believe that the expense was sufficient to dent the average fortune and would have been prohibitive in the case of the man of normal means. It cost more than that, if we are to include the time of the jurors, who must have had some business of their own, and of the judge, who no doubt had other cases upon his docket that were suffering for lack of action. And after all, the real dignity of the litigation was summed up in the verdict of six cents and costs assessed against the Tribune. Like other notable trials, this one was largely for public benefit. It was set and staged, with high-salaried actors employed and elaborate scenery. Not a small part of the outlay of money went for a press bureau maintained by Mr. Ford, which sent reports of the proceedings to every daily newspaper that would publish them, and to some that would not. Is it any wonder that the American citizen had rather suffer wrong and outrage than to go to court? Is it hard to understand why the well-balanced business man often considers it cheaper to settle an unjust claim out of court, rather than to spend his time and money in the endless processes of litigation?

If the dignity of courts is to be maintained, such exhibitions as the one at Mt. Clemens must be barred.

Representative Seigel, republican of New York, in addressing the House, submitted figures which he said had been obtained from clothing manufacturers, in regard to the cost of overcoats. These figures showed that overcoats costing the manufacturer $10.85 in 1917 had advanced to $22.62 by last week. Admitting that this was a healthy climb in prices, it is still hard to understand why the same overcoats, when sold at retail, cost at least 50 per cent more than they did two years ago. The manufacturer's graft of $12 per coat should not advance the retail price on these garments but $12.

BIRMINGHAM VOTES A BIG BOND ISSUE

The city of Birmingham, justly proud of its remarkable growth and equally as ambitious for the future, on yesterday voted a bond issue of $4,500,000. This money will be expended as follows: for high school improvements, $1,000,000; for grammar school improvements, $2,000,000; for a public auditorium, $500,000; for fire equipment, $500,000; for the construction of a combination city hall and library building, $500,000. This is an ambitious program, but it is one that will put Birmingham far to the front as a real metropolis of which all Alabama may feel proud. It requires a certain amount of nerve for the tax-payers to walk up to the ballot box and authorize the expenditure of so large a sum, yet these same tax payers only showed good, sound business judgment, and will be well repaid in dividends to be collected in the future.

TODAY

How to Be Safe.
Germany Broken, Perhaps.
Minding Your Business.
Delusions Are Comfortable.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

Written Tuesday, August 12, 1919.
Today the Prince of Wales lands on this continent, not travelling incognito, as did his grand-father Edward, but coming to visit the President of the United States at the White House. This young man's travelling methods show how to eliminate danger. A war ship travels ahead of his battleship, the Renown, looking for icebergs and other dangers. If the leading ship ran into an iceberg it would wireless back, presumably "Back up; we are sinking."

When the King or Queen travels by rail a dignified director of the railroad travels ahead in a locomotive. If there is a weak bridge or broken rail, the director finds it. Therefore, there is not any weak bridge.

When the King travels by motor another automobile fully equipped goes along. In case of a blowout the King steps into the other motor and goes on. His time is very precious.

English writers say that Germany is "broken" in industry, finance and spirit. The rate of exchange tells the financial story. You can buy twenty-five dollars' worth of German marks for six dollars and sixty cents' worth of Swiss francs.

However, this does not mean everything. There was a day when you could buy the money and the bonds of our Northern States at a great discount. And wise Englishmen hastened to buy Confederate money and bonds. They were sure that the North was broken and must be beaten, largely because England hoped that it would be.

They still have the Confederate money, and every once in a while suggest plaintively that the United States ought to take it up at par.

Mr. Taft is against Government ownership of railroads on the plan suggested by workers through their representative, Glenn E. Plumb. He says, "We should not let the soviet system gain even a toe hold in America." Mr. Taft, earnest, honest, sincere, should know that calling American workmen Bolsheviks because they venture to suggest a workable honest system of Government ownership is not the way to keep the soviet from getting its toe hold.

Mr. Taft advocates a League of Nations that would put the United States Treasury and the young men of the United States at the disposition of foreign countries, including countries openly governed by the socialism that he so much dreads over here.

Americans willing to do so much for everybody outside of America are horrified when it is suggested that something should be done for millions of workmen inside of America. Why?

Our blessed American democracy does queer things when it breaks loose and becomes an international hero and benefactor. We use our influence and army to make Kolchak ruler of Russia. His success means another Russian autocracy, another collection of thievish Grand Dukes. But he won't succeed. No hand-picked rule could solve that Russian problem. Russia herself, not the United States, will select the man.

In Hungary this country and the Allies are proud of themselves for having "restored order" in Budapest, making one of the archdukes the leading figure. The reactionaries celebrate the happy occasion, as the Associated Press shows, by beating Jews in the streets with dog whips; the Rumanian troops, agent of the Allies, as the Associated Press says, "looking on laughingly and inciting the Hungarians to further attacks on the Jews."

Uncle Sam in a moment of leisure ought to read about the man that got rich by minding his own business.

The King of Saxony adds a chapter to the Romance of Science. He had treasure in Germany and wanted it out. The Prince of Wied took it up in a flying machine, flew to the coast of Sweden and dropped the treasure, a big bundle of bonds, near the edge of the Baltic, where a German couple, faithful to the King, had been planted to wait for it. That is as good as an old fairy story.

Here are two quotations: "We are such things as dreams are made of" and "There is nothing either good or bad but thinking makes it so."

Take, for instance, Ralph Blake-lock, who died two days ago miserably poor. He had spent eighteen years in the insane asylum perfectly blissful because he believed himself to be the richest man in the world. "Friends" got him out, almost cured him and, after hard work, made him understand that he had not a dollar, and that he depended on charity. Having had the matter carefully explained to him, Blake-lock died.

If a man has an idea that gives him real comfort, be careful about taking it from him; you may not be doing him a favor. Ingersoll and others have failed to understand that.

JUST IN PASSING

PRICE UTILITY PLAYER
"Price, who pitched the last two innings for Huntsville yesterday is a good utility player," said Earl Barnes, local clouter. "He is a good pitcher and catcher and plays infield and out well. I have known him a long time. He played with me years ago on the Huntsville high school squad and caught when I pitched here once in a ten-inning affair at the old Southeastern league park near the Albany depot. We won from the Albany high school 4 to 3."

GOOD CHANCE FOR LEAGUE

"The chances for Huntsville obtaining a berth in the proposed Alabama-Tennessee league are getting better every day," declared the manager of the Huntsville team. "Interest in base ball up there is picking up daily. The city now boasts no enclosed area and for that reason we were unable to put out a paid team this year but the fans are pulling strong for the organization of the league now and I am pretty sure Huntsville can be counted on for one of the charters."

LETTER CONTRACT
The letter of Col. W. A. McCalla, for many years a resident of Albany-Decatur, will be interested in the following story taken from the Montgomery Journal:

"Col. W. A. McCalla, assistant highway engineer left for Birmingham Monday morning to let a federal and state aid contract for road building in Jefferson county. This project is expected to cost not less than three quarters of a million dollars."

CARD OF THANKS

We are profoundly grateful to our friends for their many deeds of kindness, their expressions of sympathy, their words of encouragement, their presence, the use of their cars and the floral offerings, during the sickness and death of our devoted wife and sister, Mrs. W. R. Peyton.

Gratefully and sincerely,
W. F. PEYTON,
MRS. SELA SNYDER.

Meats in Storage Not "Hoarded"

Live stock is a seasonal crop—like cereals and grains.

It is "ripe" and is marketed in larger quantities in certain months. This causes a natural oversupply at one time and a natural shortage at another.

During the time of oversupply Swift & Company places some of the meat in cold storage, against the season of short production.

This is a necessity in order that the nation's ration of meat—58,000,000 pounds every day in the year—may be forthcoming as the consumer requires it.

This is not hoarding, not price manipulation, not market control. It is mere common sense.

United States Bureau of Markets' figures of stocks of frozen and cured meats July 1 are being used as a basis for Department of Justice investigations in many cities. When properly analyzed, based on Swift & Company's stocks, these figures show:

- 62 per cent (approximate) is pork and beef cuts, etc., cured and in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the curing process.
- 12 per cent is frozen pork, of which more than three-quarters is to be cured in the next few months.
- 7 per cent is lard. This is a normal supply and only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.
- 19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, and miscellaneous meats, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for overseas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels it would be only 2½ lbs. per capita—a 5 days' supply.

100%
From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

Albany Boosters Meet Big Crowds First Day of Trip was delivered by Harris McClellan, who recently returned from service on the fighting front in France. The response was delivered by H. L. Spencer, who also urged the necessity for building good roads.

Addresses also were made by A. G. Patterson and Secretary Henley of the Board of Commerce. The latter explained the prize tickets being given away and told how the awards will be made.

Pricville was the second stop on the itinerary and another crowd was out to welcome the business men. Men, women and children were among the male residents of the neighborhood and the ice cream and drinks proved a big hit with the "kiddies."

Mr. Patterson made his second address of the day and it was received with enthusiasm. J. E. Mathews was the speaker in behalf of Pricville. The greeting extended the Boosters were very cordial and good fellowship reigned supreme.

At Henderson's Store, the third stop, the Boosters were welcomed formally by J. J. Bishop and R. L. Henderson and the response was made by H. L. Spencer. Another short address was made by W. K. Shelton.

The fourth stop was Somerville, the Boosters arriving there shortly before lunch. They will press on, however, to Six Mile for the noon-day rest.

Handsomeness Souvenir Being Given Away

Among the many handsome souvenirs being given away by the Albany Boosters on their swing around the circle of 35 neighboring communities, a Farmers' Ready Reckoner, awarded by Speake, Echols and Speake is creating much interest.

The little booklet contains much valuable information for the farmer and provides a simple and easy accounting system. When retailed, it sells for one dollar.

Happy Over Results; Could Not Sleep

MR. D. H. WHITE, LIVING AT 224 COUNTY STREET, PORTS-MOUTH, VA.

PRaises IRONIZED PAW-PAW

People everywhere have found great relief from stomach troubles, nervousness, indigestion, sleeplessness and general debility through the use of Ironized Paw-Paw, the true and reliable new remedy. It gives the stomach abiding strength, stimulates the liver into healthy action, cleanses the blood of poisonous matter and acts speedily on the nerve centres.

Ironized Paw-Paw is not a "cure-all"—it is compounded for the stomach, nerves and blood. We make no exaggerated statements; our vast army of converts attest this every hour with thousands of grateful letters, coming in by every mail, thanking us for the benefits derived from its use.

Mr. D. H. White, residing at 224 County street, Portsmouth, Va., says: "I suffered from indigestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility, accompanied with dizziness in the head. I had heard so much of Nux-Iron Paw-Paw Tonic that I determined to try it. I bought two bottles at Morrow, Martin & Co.'s Drug store and took 1 tablespoonful 3 times a day before meals for a couple of weeks with the happy result that today I am a well man, sleep well as I ever did, have good appetite, my nervousness is gone, and I am rapidly recovering my strength and the dizzy spells are a thing of the past."

"It gives me pleasure to recommend an honest remedy that more men does all you claim for it."

"I shall be pleased to recommend Ironized Paw-Paw to anyone suffering from the same troubles I am now freed from."

Begin on Ironized Paw-Paw today, so you can join the army of converts. Your druggist probably keeps it, but he doesn't, any up-to-date drug store can get it for you.

Ironized Paw-Paw, price $1.20. Formula on every bottle. Mail orders promptly attended to. At leading druggists. Interstate Drug Company, New York. —Advertisement.

FAMED NEW ENGLAND FAMILY

Many Distinguished Citizens Among the Hanks of the Town of Mansfield, Conn.

At the recent celebration at Mansfield, Conn., of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hanks, the fact was brought out that the Hanks family has long been known for its ingenuity. The first town clock known in this country was made on Hanks hill by Benjamin Hanks and was placed in the Old Dutch church in New York city in 1780. The first brass cannon and first bell in America were also cast on Hanks hill.

Not only this, but the first silk mill erected in the United States, in 1810, still remains on the old hill. The grandfather of Henry W. Hanks, who was Rodney Hanks, was the first silk manufacturer in America. The latter's son, George R. father of Henry, continued in the business. All about the old town are evidences of a famous experiment in raising cocoons for the industry, in the shape of stray mulberry trees which have survived the severe New England winters.

Another interesting fact brought out at the celebration was that, although Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanks have five children and four grandchildren, during the fifty years of their married life there has never been a death in the family. When a boy, Henry Hanks went with his parents to Illinois, where they ran a ranch and conducted a grocery store in the years between 1868 and 1867, moving back to the ancestral acres during the latter year. —New York World.

SARDINIA LIVES IN THE PAST

Hand Sickles and Wooden Plows Drawn by Oxen Are Still in Use on the Island.

Relics of Biblical pastoral life, plowing with wooden plows drawn by oxen, reaping by the most primitive implements and other occupations of the nomadic peoples of antiquity remain the manner of living today in Sardinia, according to Dr. Alfred P. Dennis, commercial attaché of the United States embassy at Rome, who has just returned from the island after making an exhaustive study into trade possibilities.

"Sardinians present a living picture of the remote past which has been stereotyped and handed down from antiquity," said Doctor Dennis. "Water wheels with earthen buckets, wooden plows drawn by oxen, the scythe and the sickle still in use in reaping vast fields—nomadic occupations unchanged since the days of the Aryan dispersion—tribal costumes as gay and grotesque as the trappings of the medieval pageant—all reproduced in the very minutest detail the archaic life of bygone ages."

Camouflage in Reverse.
Reversal of the camouflage principle, greatly increasing the visibility of its subjects instead of concealing them by blending them with the background, is declared a possible peace development by the naval officer who developed that particular nature-faking system. SAYS SHE WOULD HAVE BEEN DEAD

If Sulfero-Sol, the Wonder Medicine, Hadn't Relieved Her of the Horrors of Pellagra as Well as Other Diseases.

Here was a pitiable case. And she made a remarkable recovery. Mrs. Mattie Boren, of Sallisaw, Okla., suffered with the horrors of pellagra more than two years. The children had it, too. She was also afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble and diseases peculiar to her sex. Now she is well. She attributes her recovery alone to Sulfero-Sol, "The Wonder Medicine," because while she was taking it she took no other. "I would have been in my grave today," she says. "Me and my three children had the pellagra. Doctors said we would never get well. But Sulfero-Sol cured us."

Sulfero-Sol is a medicine of marvelous power, which is even recognized by physicians. It is a natural nerve tonic and blood purifier, relieving not only Pellagra, but also Rheumatism, Eczema, Indigestion and Diarrhoea. Try a bottle and be convinced of its wonderful power. After a few doses you will praise it. Get it at your druggists.

Where Cigarette Tobacco Was Born

"... hearing that the notorious pirate John Thach—called 'Black Beard'—had way-laid a tobacco ship off the Cape, Lieutenant Maynard put to sea and encountered him in Pinlico Bay, Nov. 21, 1718. Maynard boarded the pirate brig and slew Black Beard with his own hand before the pirate Coxswain could succeed in blowing up both vessels by touching off a powder keg."

—Cooke's VIRGINIAS

The tobacco that is honestly "different"

Virginia tobacco has every quality that a good cigarette tobacco should possess—flavor, fragrance and body plus a certain "liveliness of taste" that other tobaccos do not have.

That is why Virginia does not need to be mixed with other tobaccos, but tastes best smoked straight, in an all-Virginia cigarette.

If you want all of that rich Virginia flavor and that lively, different taste, smoke Piedmonts. These cigarettes are made entirely from Virginia and from the choicest selections of the Virginia crop.

NOTE—Virginia tobacco, unlike foreign-grown tobacco, has no import duty to pay. That is why Piedmont's quality does not cost you more. Import duty does not make a cigarette taste any better. Why not get all your money's worth in tobacco quality?

Daily Thought

In adversity it is easy to despise life; the truly brave man is he who can endure to be miserable.—Martial.

Americans Eat Little Mutton.

In Great Britain about 22 per cent of all meat consumed is mutton. In France it is about 11 per cent. In Canada it is not quite 7, and in the United States is only about 3 1/2 per cent. Last year (1915) the consumption of dressed meat (lard excluded) in the United States averaged 150 pounds per person, of which only 5 were mutton and lamb.

The British, the Canadians, and the French—all similar types of people and having habits of life similar to Americans—use less meat than Americans do, but a much larger proportion comes from sheep. The United States gets its meat principally from cattle and hogs. Pork consumption is about 14 times, and beef consumption about 13 times, as great as our use of mutton and lamb. These are the annual averages for last year.

Bag Changes Into a Boat.

A British invention for the relief of aeronauts making voyages over extensive stretches of water consists of a more or less circular gas bag in the center of which is stretched a "floor" of heavy fabric. Ordinarily, the raft is carried by the airship in the deflated state; but in the event of accident it can be inflated in a few minutes to form a most serviceable raft. The bag is really a series of bags, each being inflated through a separate air valve. Simple oar locks and a pair of oars are provided for propulsion purposes.

Wise Provision of Nature.

Man always worships something; always he sees the infinite shadowed forth in something finite; and indeed can and must so see it in any finite thing, once tempt him well to fix his eyes thereon.—Carlyle.

Be Different.

Try to find a better reason for your acts than "everybody does it." There are follies in dress, absurdities in customs, that are defended on this ground always. The girl who thinks it is proper to dress immodestly because her next-door neighbor does, has a curious code of propriety. Custom does not make a thing right or sensible.—Grit.

BAKER IS MUM

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Reports that an American punitive expedition commanded by Col. George Langhorne had crossed into Mexico to run down the band of Mexican kidnapers who carried off and held for ransom two American aviators reached here today.

Secretary of War Baker refused to talk, saying he "might have something to say later." At 12 o'clock, Secretary Baker went to Secretary Lansing's office for a conference, following which he declined again to make any statement. The state department already has held that Langhorne's expedition has a perfect right to go into Mexico, and that such action could not be construed by the Carranza administration as an act of war.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—There was a note of dissatisfaction in the comment of many of the newspapers today on the "warning speech" of Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons yesterday. The government's course outlined by the premier was described by the Morning Post as "a Micawber policy," and the Post regarded the whole affair as "an dishonest compromise." Omission of reference to Ireland was remarked by several newspapers.

Mr. John Matlock, Albany, Ala.

My dear John:—

Your letter came to me in New York, and I have thought of it over and over again, but have been so tremendously busy that I haven't had an opportunity to write you.

I could not begin to make you understand on paper what a condition the market is in, but when I tell you that I left New York without buying a single dollar's worth of goods, it will give you a faint idea of conditions. I don't know how such a market will ever hold out. They were just as crazy as any of the folks in the asylum but I think that when "Uncle Sam" gets through with some of them, they will be more settled.

You are selling goods at 25% to 33 1-3% cheaper than you can buy them from any manufacturer in New York. I went into house after house that did not have even a sample.

We are very proud of your last month's record. Your sales were more than any other store, and we certainly hope that you can keep up this splendid record. I don't know what you will do when you get your other building.

With very kind regards to your wife, as well as to yourself, I am,

very sincerely yours,

J. H. ANDERSON

CLERKS WHO USE CUSS WORDS

Singular Admission Said to Have Been Made by the Members of a Graduating Class.

It has long been the fashion at colleges and schools to take a census of graduating classes to determine such vital facts as these:

What is your favorite flower? How tall are you? Do you smoke? Are you a prohibitionist?

At a girls' seminary a recent inquiry was more sweeping. To the interrogation: "Do you swear?" 200 of the 215 girls answered yes.

But admitting that they swear is not proof that these feminine lips do utter oaths. So at least says the law in New York state, writes "Griant" in the Philadelphia Press.

"Four or five people" must hear you swear, not for a second or two, but "for about five minutes"—that's the law in North Carolina.

Down in Alabama they don't expect a man to swear from the house, but the law says that if three or four persons hear you just once, good-night!

In Tennessee it is not necessary to repeat the offensive words when a culprit is indicted for swearing.

I saw on the veranda of a country club seventeen women of whom twelve were drinking an intoxicating liquor and seven were smoking cigarettes.

But if that census at the girls' seminary is an index, more women swear than daily with John Barleycorn or Lady Nicotine.

Query: Why do women insist on being so much like men?

OWED MUCH TO STEREOSCOPE

How Commanders During the Great War Got Information of Vital Importance.

The old-fashioned stereoscope played an important part in the world war. It supplied an angle to photographs, snapped from airplanes, that could not be obtained from the ordinary camera lens. Before its use the pictures all seemed flat, but the stereoscope added height, and thus steep slopes, that appeared in pictures like flat ground, were shown in their true characteristics, and the lives of men who would have to cover the ground in attack were saved.

The airplane camera looks directly down on the spot to be photographed, making a picture as a one-eyed man would see it. A stereoscopic camera, in which the lenses are two and three-quarters inches apart, would not produce the stereoscopic effect. Photographers decided to take pictures 100 yards apart to give a view, just as a giant, with eyes 100 yards apart, would see it. These pictures were put on cardboard, and viewed through the stereoscope. At first a cottage looked like a tower, a bucket like a well, a trench like a canyon, etc. The officers soon learned to translate these eccentricities, and the problem was solved. True pictures, giving just the exact information desired, were then obtained by the airplane photographers.

The Scoffer.

Maybe one girl in fifty has two men to choose between, but we don't believe the girl ever lived who had her pick of three.—Parade Magazine.

The Pradigmatic.

Teddy had the usual nine o'clock sickness and did not have to go to school as a result. But at ten o'clock he found that he had recovered, and after dressing sought his mother in the kitchen. "I'm well, mother," he announced, "but I can't go to school till noon. You see it's too late now just to be counted tardy and too early to be counted absent."

SELF ESTEEM IS MENTIONED IN STATEMENT

MILAN WOMAN DECLARES SHE IS PROUD TO PUBLICLY INDORSE TRUTONA.

MILAN, Tenn., Aug. 18.—"Trutona seems to have given me new life and I'm proud to publicly indorse the new medicine," was the enthusiastic and convincing statement made recently by Barbara Lowe, a well known Milan woman.

"I was suffering from a catarrhal affection of the stomach and bowels," she continued. "I was nervous and usually was being annoyed by constipation. Needless to say, I tried many different medicines but they didn't seem to give me the relief I wanted, that is, until I began taking Trutona."

"Trutona seemed to reach my troubles from the very start. My head is as clear as a bell now and my nose isn't stopped up any more. I can eat anything now and the food always digests properly and agrees with me. And to think, it used to be that I had no appetite and had to be careful about what I ate. Trutona has regulated my bowels, too, something no other medicine has ever done and I'm not nervous like I was before using Trutona. I'm going to continue taking Trutona and I'm sure it will completely relieve me of my troubles."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Decatur at Decatur Drug Co., and in Albany by Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co.—Advertisement.

The "Biblers."

The Czech-Slovaks, having attained national independence, attain also the privilege of reading the Bible in the national tongue, so the British Bible society is planning to print Czech Bibles purchasable for 50-cents each. Austrians and Italians have long called the Czech-Slovaks "Biblers." The Czech Bible was first printed in 1475, but when the Czechs came under Austria the printing and reading of the Bible in their own language was forbidden. Copies of the Czech Bible were printed in other lands and smuggled in, but were burned if discovered. Religious persecution, dating back to the time of John Huss, the Bohemian reformer of the fifteenth century, combined with political persecution to make the Czech Bible rare, but all the more highly valued. Although, in modern days, the Austrian government permitted the circulation of the Czech Bible in the army, it continued to prohibit the circulation among the Czechs at home.

Calomel Users! Listen To Me!

I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Your druggist gives back your money if it doesn't liven your liver and bowels and straighten you up without making you sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.
Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones.

Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Substitutes for Hickory.

Specifications for handles for intrenching tools were prepared during the war by the forest products laboratory at Madison, allowing seven substitute species in place of hickory and also certain minor defects, thereby making possible greatly increased production for this class of material and at the same time giving satisfactory handles.—University Bulletin.

Almost a Shadow, Afraid to Eat.

"My son-in-law was so bad from stomach trouble that he was reduced to almost a shadow, and was afraid to eat anything, as all food caused bloating of gas which pressed against his heart, worrying him very much.
Our druggist persuaded him to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and in two months he looked fine, can eat anything and works hard every day."
It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.

Chalk Substitute for Cement.
Ordinary chalk, treated by a new European process, becomes a cheap substitute for cement, strong enough for house-building use. It sets in water and resists the action of moisture.

HAYAKAWA CAST AS NOTED

Japanese Motion Picture Star Plays Role of Oriental Scientist in "The Man Beneath" His Latest Play.
Sessue Hayakawa, who toured India with his Japanese dramatic company before he entered the silent drama, is a deep student of Oriental mysticism, and tells many interesting stores of his experiences with the "fakirs" of India.

"All along the Ganges, the sacred river of India, these Indian ascetics can be seen squatting on their haunches, lost in abstraction and oblivious of their surroundings. One old fellow that I saw was so emaciated and Sphinx-like, sitting there with his head against a wall and a glassy look in his eyes, that I thought he had passed away, and so reported to the authorities.

"I learned to my astonishment that he would sit thus for days at a time, partaking of no sustenance whatever. While in this condition, I was told, his soul was in communion with Buddha."

"The Man Beneath" was produced by Haworth Pictures Corporation for Robertson-Cole and is distributed by Exhibitors Mutual.
